

It seems as though there is a gray area in regard to the broadcast of "Stolen Honor" by Sinclair Broadcast group. If Sinclair is footing the bill for the broadcast and there is no sold advertising then should there be equal time for the opposition? (Kerry and Nader) If they do not provide equal time is it considered a political contribution? What liability does the FCC assume by not ensuring compliance with election laws with regards to broadcast?